Convenience and Necessity to Provide     ) Interexchange Telecommunications Services     ) within the State of South Carolina and for     ) Alternative Regulation     )

This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (“Commission”) on the Application of Bee Line Long Distance, LLC d/b/a Hello Telecom (“Bee Line” or the “Company”) to cancel its Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide interexchange telecommunications services in the State of South Carolina. A review of the docket file reveals that Bee Line’s authority to operate as a reseller of interexchange telecommunications services in South Carolina was granted by Order No. 2003-504, dated August 14, 2003.

By Application filed December 17, 2004, Bee Line seeks cancellation of its Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity. Bee Line states that the Company has not operated in South Carolina and does not intend to do so in the future.

As Bee Line is not providing the services for which its Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity was granted, the Commission finds and concludes that Bee Line’s Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide interexchange telecommunications services within the State of South Carolina should be cancelled.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

1. The Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide interexchange telecommunications services within the State of South Carolina authorized by Order No.2003-504, dated August 14, 2003, issued in the instant docket to Bee Line Long Distance, LLC d/b/a Hello Telecom is hereby cancelled.

2. This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further Order of the Commission.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMISSION:

/s/
Randy Mitchell, Chairman
